Montana Nonprofit Association
2011 ANNUAL REPORT

COVER: Montana Youth Homes, Missoula

GREETINGS MNA Members and Friends:

For MNA, 2011 can be succinctly captured in two words: TRANSITION and IMPACT!

In September, we said goodbye to former executive director Brian Magee, who stepped down after eight years in order to join his wife Michelle in Pittsburgh. The transition brought challenges—but the patience, wisdom and optimism of MNA's members and friends buoyed us as we carefully navigated forward.

In the midst of such visible change, we took a less obvious shift that we think will ripple positively through Montana's nonprofit sector in the years ahead. We got serious about understanding impact. MNA has long used data to measure and evaluate our efforts. In 2011 we expanded our beyond accomplishments and achievements to include the difference we're making. That shift is reflected in this year's Annual Report, MNA 2011: Impact Snapshots.

The pages that follow are small, requiring whittling, decisiveness and snippets in place of storyline. One area we didn't cut is our list of members and supporters. You are the heart of our work and we simply could not minimize your role within MNA and in Montana's nonprofit sector.

Read on! Be inspired! A stronger, more cohesive and vibrant nonprofit sector is emerging in Montana and in your communities, and the story is yours. We close with a heartfelt thanks for the work you're doing, and the difference you're making in Montana.

WE ARE MANY MISSIONS, ONE VOICE.

Jono McKinney, Chair
MNA Board of Directors

When 149 Montana nonprofits signed on to a letter to Senator Baucus requesting the charitable deduction be preserved, we were noticed. During his opening remarks to the Senate Finance Committee hearing on the deduction, Senator Baucus said:

“ MNA members have helped improve Montana on so many fronts—education, health and human services, arts and culture, religious and spiritual development, environmental protection, economic and workforce development and more...I would like to take a moment to congratulate those members and thank them for their service to Montana. ”
