LEADERSHIP

MONTANA NONPROFIT ASSOCIATION'S annual report gives us at MNA the opportunity to reflect on the past 12 months. Inevitably, that process leads to gratitude. Thank you first and foremost to our members. All that we undertake is on behalf of your missions. Thank you to our foundation partners. We celebrate you and the work we're doing together in Montana. Thank you to our many business partners that are working to lower the bottom line for nonprofits. And thank you to partners in government: legislators, members of the administration, and staff members that recognize the relationship between government's effectiveness and a strong nonprofit sector. We at MNA are rich in blessings, and we thank each of you for being part of a large circle that is making Montana a wonderful place to live and play for all of us.

ADVOCACY AND PUBLIC POLICY

Amplifying Montana's nonprofit voice

MNA's public policy work is supported by a member statewide Public Policy Council.

Successfully advocated for nonprofits to be included as a Key Industry Network with Governor Bullock's Main Street Montana economic plan.

A Focus on Government Contracting contributed to the creation of a Contract Relations position within the Montana Department of Public Health and Human Services.

Joined colleagues in the Northwest in promoting the passage of America Gives More, an effort that narrowly failed after gaining momentum in the closing days of 2014.

In response to advocacy from MNA and several partners, the Montana Supreme Court overturned a district court ruling that would have dramatically undermined the preservation of donor intent and the nonprofit corporate structure in Montana.

FINANCIALS

MNA's revenue in 2014 was $540,005, 16% less than the 2013 total of $634,416. This is due primarily to the spend down of two temporarily restricted multi-year grants that support MNA's professional and organizational development efforts. Operating expenses for 2014 were $620,515, an 11% increase over 2013.

85% of funds were used to strengthen Montana's nonprofit sector by advancing our collective voice, increasing nonprofit management and leadership capacity, generating accurate research and information about the sector, giving nonprofits access to a suite of cost-saving products, strengthening and supporting local nonprofit networks, and promoting a culture of philanthropy in Montana. 15% of expenditures were for administration and fundraising activities.

WE BELIEVE...

...a thriving nonprofit sector is essential to Montana's vitality and livability. We are creating a future where communities are stronger because nonprofits are recognized and celebrated for their contributions, have the resources needed for mission fulfillment, and are connected with key partners both in and outside the nonprofit sector.
